Dual Flow Spout Pours into Market

Jokari's New Dual Flow Pour Spout is Two Spouts in One!

CARROLLTON, TX — August 28, 2009 — Jokari introduces the double duty Dual Flow Spout. As the name implies, this innovative spout features two pour spouts. One small opening on the spout allows for a more controlled flow while a second larger opening provides a full flow. Each pour spout opening cleverly hides behind a sliding top.

The Jokari Dual Flow Spout comes in three vibrant colors; tangerine, lime and grape and the airtight seal fits most bottle sizes.

The Dual Flow Spout from Jokari is attractive enough to display on any countertop or cabinet and is as useful as it is attractive for dispensing lotions, soaps, liquors, oils and more. The spout is available now on Jokari.com and retails for $3.99.
